11th EUDN PhD Workshop on Development Economics

Toulouse School of Economics, Toulouse, France

October 18-19, 2012

The European Development Research Network (EUDN) PhD Student Workshop aims at giving PhD students in Development Economics an opportunity to present their papers in an informal environment, as well as to exchange the results of recent and ongoing research in different fields of development economics. In Fall 2012, the workshop will be jointly organized by the EUDN and the Toulouse School of Economics. The event will take place in Toulouse, France.

Contributions from all possible fields of development economics are welcome.

There will be ample time for presentation and discussion to maximize comments and questions from the attending faculty. By this occasion, a keynote speech will be delivered by Professor Jean-Marie Baland, FUNDP, Namur.

Important Dates:

The workshop will take place on Thursday October 18th and Friday October 19th, 2012. The deadline for submitting a contribution is July 15th, 2012. Please send an abstract of about 250 words and a full paper (preferably in PDF) to EUDNphd2012@gmail.com putting "Submission" in the subject line by July 15th, 2012. Acceptance notes with further information will be sent by late August/early September, 2012.

Expenses:

Participation in the workshop is free. The EUDN and ARQADE research laboratory at Toulouse School of Economics will jointly sponsor the workshop, providing a conference dinner as well as lunches and coffee breaks during the workshop. Moreover, authors of selected papers without travel funds may apply for subsidies, subject to the availability of funds, if indicated before July 15th, 2012 (along with the submitted paper).

For further questions, or information about attending the workshop without presenting please email to EUDNphd2012@gmail.com
